SOUTHERN NEWS.

Fernandina, Florida, is appealing for help.

Charleston, S. C., has a regiment of colored militia.

Lynchburg, Va., has determined to have a tobacco fair.

Gov. Kemper will review several companies of colored militia at Richmond, to-day.

The cities of Virginia are providing against the presence and depredations of the tramps, who are moving southward from the middle States.

It is announced by authority in the New York Ledger that Mr. Good, of Virginia, one of the candidates for Speaker, is a friend of the Texas Pacific Railroad.

A Kentucky farmer poisoned some watermelons to kill thieves, and then sold them by mistake to his customers.
Several persons were taken sick, and one died. The farmer fled.

Gen. Forrest is rapidly recovering from his severe illness. He appears to have adopted the planter's life with great energy. He has many hundreds of acres planted in corn and cotton.

Savannah News: Evidently the cotton receipts in interior cities are far behind last year. Macon has received only thousand and eight hundred and eighty-seven bales, against eight thousand seven hundred and eighty bales last year up to the same time.

The Fifth Company, New Orleans Artillery, will go into camp at the Ma-golia Garden on the 30th of September.
Instant. Camp life will be there exhibited during the day, and at night fair ladies and brave men will "chase the glowing hours with flying feet." Until the music of the many twinkling aniles succumbs to the exertion, and pales away before the east of twilight.

The New Orleans Times says that it is proposed to organize in that city during the coming winter a non-political society of progressive men, whose duty will consist in furthering every legiti-mate object calculated to benefit the community at large, and affording to visitors from the North facilities for ascertaining its natural advantages and obtaining a fair knowledge of the South socially and in other respects.

STATE NEWS.

The Cape Fear which has been very much swollen is subsiding.

A kitchen belonging to Mr. C. H. Hiler of Charlotte was burned Monday morning.

horse belonging to Mr. I. H. Davis of Sassafras Fork, Granville county, recently.

the stevedores still continues. The are quiet and seem determined to carry out their resolutions.

The Wilmington Review says it is rumored that Rev. Mr. Stallings is about to remove his paper, the Duplin Record, from Magnolia to Wilmington.

A New Post Office has been opened on the route leading from Monroe to class high school.

Oxford Torchlight: We learn, from good authority, that the merchants of Walnut Grove have set the price of $1.50 per barrel on new corn, and those of Oak Hill $1.00. That doesn't look like the corn crop was a failure in this county.

Newbern Nut-Shell: The rifle team appointed by the Elm City Rifle team to compete for the champion flag at the State Fair, had their first practice yesterday evening, and some very good shots were made. Among the New-bern teams are some of the best men in the State, and we see no reason why the flag should not be brought away from the city of Oaks by one of our companies.

CAMP RUSSELL.

The Secretary of War has granted the temporary use of the barracks located here, for the State military at the coming Fair. Gov. Vance accepted the offer, on condition that the legal rights of the State in respect of the premises be in no wise affected.

It will be remembered that on the 28th of August past, Gov. Vance wrote to the Secretary of War requesting a demand which he had formerly made, that this property be turned over to the State, and laying claim to it as belonging to the State.

This letter was not a request for the temporary use of the barracks. The Governor, as it was proper for him to do, under the circumstances, demanded the surrender of the property as a right, not condescending to beg of the Secretary the privilege of occupying houses and grounds really belonging to North Carolina.

The Governor was right. The legal title to the property is clearly in the State of North Carolina. There can be no doubt about it. The land on which the barracks are built, was a part of the original site of the city of Raleigh. It was granted to the State in 1793; and rests on a title similar to that of the capital and other public squares in the city.

During the War the State authorities allowed the Confederate government to erect on these grounds a number of buildings which were used for a hospital for wounded soldiers. The Confederate government never acquired title to the land. Nothing more than a temporary occupation by it for the purpose above indicated was ever contemplated.
So that the title never passed from the State.

After the close of hostilities, the United States troops took possession of the property, and up to a very recent date have used it as a camp or barracks.

At present it is unoccupied.
In the Spring of the present year, the War Department ordered the sale of the property. Gov. Vance wrote to the Secretary of War, presenting the claim of North Carolina to the grounds, denying the U. S. Government's assumed right to it, and requesting that it be turned over to the State. Upon this showing the Secretary countermanded the order of sale.

In August, the Governor reiterated his demand for possession, as above noted, and was refused.

This is the legal status of the matter; and a brief outline of the facts connected with the correspondence between Governor Vance and the War Department. The military will be quartered there during Fair week, but the United States Government, it is understood, concedes no rights, and Gov-Vance, by accepting on these terms yields nothing of North Carolina's right in the matter. The legal title is left for future settlement, which we hope will be speedily brought about by action of ejection.

Should the State regain permanent possession of these barracks, it would be well to hold it in future for State military purposes—annual encampments, reviews, &c. It would be of great service in perfecting the organization of the State Guard, and their instruction in drill and discipline. This, however, is a question for the future.
We are gratified to announce that such comfortable and convenient quarters have been secured for the use of the military next month. There is no reason why every uniformed company, invited or ordered to attend, should not be present and participate in the review. Certainly each of them will expect it.

The Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad begins to-morrow to run through to Hamlet, its Southern terminus at present, and the point where it joins the Carolina Central Railway. This connection will give new value and importance to the latter road. It brings the people along its line in closer communication with the capital of the State, and opens up a new highway for travel and traffic. But the public will experience little benefit from this line unless the connection at Hamlet be a close one. If the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad expects to divert any of the travel between Raleigh and Charlotte from its present channel, it must have its trains connect with those of the Carolina Central.

We publish elsewhere the prospectus of the University Magazine. The reappearance of this valuable periodical will be greeted with pleasure throughout the State. Its chosen editors are young gentlemen of the talents and abilities to make it a valuable and bright new light to be thrown on the topics of the day.

The case of Shaw vs. the Southern Underwriters' Association was resumed yesterday, in Justice Maguin's Court.
The plaintiff asked the progress of this trial with more than ordinary interest and awaits impatiently the completion of the investigation.

PROTECTION OF GAME AND

We have advocated the enactment of laws for the protection of game and fish.
The following comments from the Hillsboro Recorder are of so much value that we transfer them entire into our columns:

We are glad to see this subject occupying the attention of the press. The Raleigh News lately contributed a valuable article on the subject, and that journal in the issue of the 13th quotes an article from the Hendersonville Free Press, showing that the question is gaining a wide appreciation.
Really, there is no subject more truly deserving the intelligent attention of the broadest statesmanship. It is not a

The Weekly News is the best weekly paper published in this city. It contains 20 columns of news, and is published every day of the week, except on Sundays and holidays. It is always fresh.

NEWS NOTES.

Fashion favors the greatest possible depth in fringes, some of which measure twenty-four inches.

The new style of ladies' hats leaves very little room for the brain. The inventor knew what he was doing.

Parisian ladies affect pieces of needle-work that require the patience of a Don Quixote to complete.

It is understood that the badge of the New Jersey Democrats during the campaign will be a miniature steamboat.

Ten years ago the late Senator Boyce resumed Masonry to join the Roman Catholic Church, and he died in that faith.

Russia has 650,000 hereditary nobles and 880,000 who are not hereditary, and thousands of both classes are very poor.

Embroideries of many colors will be the rage this winter. They will be worked on cloth and cashmere as well as silk.

They are circulating a rumor in Ottawa that the Marquis of Lorne will succeed Lord Dufferin as Governor-General of Canada.

When Prince Gortchakoff heard of the death of his wife he was so overcome that he said to her: "I am so glad to see you again, and I am so glad to see you again."

The platings of crepe lisse for the neck, which are so becoming and desirable, have been replaced by colored embroideries on white muslin and tulle lace.

Since the introduction of "female postmasters" a girl goes up to the window and says, "There is a letter for Miss Margaret Robinson." "Yes," says the "female postmaster," "there is one from John McFones."

Baltimore Gazette. The country will never forget and never condone the crime which seated Mr. Hayes in the presidency, but when he speaks the voice of patriotism and peace it is right that it should listen and applaud.

A court-martial has been ordered to try the members of the Philadelphia companies, officers and enlisted men, who failed to report for duty on the departure of the brigades for Pittsburgh, or left their commands without leave during the campaign against the strikers.

"Two Bears," the Sioux Indian who visited the prison at Baltimore the other day, was very much amazed by the unaccountable imprisonment of people for stealing horses. When shown the cells he was very emphatic in the opinion that they were "No good, no good; no place for Indian. Good eat, but no good sleep, Ugh!"

Mr. Elihu Burritt has written a letter to the New York Tribune in which he says we must have the English word "house" in order to abate the "tramp nuisance." The Tribune thinks the plan excellent, as it has been thought of in England and has proved highly successful there. Indeed so long ago as 1790 Count Rumford in this way almost entirely suppressed beggary in Bavaria.

In speech before the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union at Richmond, Co. Adjutant Archibald Gibbons called attention to the fact that "Fus 15," has been the cotemporary of all the Presidents of the United States. He was a priest when Washington died. He was a priest when Monroe was President. He was a bishop when the second Adams occupied the White House. He was a bishop when the present President was elected.

General McClellan says in Harper's Magazine that our army loses a larger proportion of officers killed in time of peace than the British army loses in peace and war together. Taking the number killed in the last century from 1804 to 1884, and deducting the losses during the wars of 1812, of Mexico, of Florida and the Black Hawk, and considering the intervening peaceful periods, the percentage of killed is greater to the whole force than that of the British army in the same period, though Great Britain was at war nearly the whole time.

The Raleigh Daily News has enlarged its dimensions, and with its issue of Sunday presented itself to its many readers in the form of a thirty-two column paper. It gratifies its readers to observe this evidence of prosperity on the part of so excellent a journal. The News is conducted with ability and with fidelity to the interests of the Democratic party and the people at large. It sounded many of the most important key-notes of the last great campaign, and in all political contests since the day of its establishment, it has been found in the forefront of the battle. We repeat our gratification in observing that the public continues to appreciate it.

Our State Fair. (From the Biblical Recorder.) The exhibition to be held on the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th of October next, promises to be very interesting to the largest and best ever given in North Carolina. The faithful labor of Col. Holt, the President, Capt. Denson, the Secretary, assisted by the Executive Committee and by Col. Polk, Commissioner of Agriculture, have created more enthusiasm at home and abroad than ever before. Kind friends in this and other States, have made so many liberal and valuable donations to be used as premiums, that the display of the State will take place, and a grand review by Gov. Z. B. Vance and Staff.

Black Swallow in Real Life. (Charlotte Observer.) The following is from the police court record in the Richmond Enquirer of Sunday. Something similar to it has been nearly every Southern paper at one time or another within the past five or six years:

"A black swallow, drunk, disorderly, and creating a disturbance in the street, was required to give security in the sum of $20 for sixty days, in default of which he went to jail."

"What was the odds," asked Mr. Swallow, "so long as the spirit is expelled by means of row wine, and the punishment is the least of my troubles?" "That's Cardwell, too, and the frequency with which 'the row' is inaccessible, is all that keeps him from being the happiest man in the world—'A las, poor Yorkie!'"

Justice Upchurch's office in the Court House is having a fresh coat of paint put on by Messrs. Weddin and Thompson. This will help the looks of the place remarkably.

Mr. Miles Goodman, the excellent policeman in 5th ward, is having his dwelling on Jones street turned round, built higher and remodeled and improved generally.

We learn the Roman Rites, one of the oldest military organizations in the State, is about to be revived and re-organized, and will probably be ready to join in the review of the Fair.

The walls of the two new offices in rear of Messrs. Battle and Mordecai's are up and ready for the roof. They will be completed, soon.

Mr. W. A. Jones, formerly second assistant in the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, has been transferred to Hamlet, N. C.

The freight business on the R. & G. Railroad has become so heavy that an extra train had to be put on the line at month Tuesday in order to move the accumulation of freight at that point. The extra train arrived in Raleigh yesterday.

As the young and ardent lover of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, it is a pity that the extra train had to be put on the line at month Tuesday in order to move the accumulation of freight at that point. The extra train arrived in Raleigh yesterday.

Two tons of type $25, given by Messrs. H. Pelouze & Co., Richmond, Va. This type is of the best quality and is well known to our printing fraternity. It is of his sister State rather than purely a matter of business, in this case.

One copy "Raleigh Sketches of Distinguished Marylanders," $1.50, given by the authors, Miss Esmeralda Doyle. This interesting work contains sketches of the great sons of Maryland: Charles Carroll, the signer of the declaration, Peale, the artist, the "Pinksy," a member of the Continental Congress, and other worthies of the past.
